Teaser	If you want to operate a trade as a self-employed business, you need to be entered in the register of craftsmen. You can find out more here.
Volltext	Anyone wishing to operate a craft independently as a standing trade requires registration in the register of craftsmen. A business is considered a skilled trade if it is operated as a skilled trade and fully comprises a trade listed in Annex A of the Crafts Code (see legal bases) or activities are carried out that are essential for this trade. In principle, only the trade that has been registered may be practiced. If several trades are practiced, each of these trades must generally be entered in the Register of Craftsmen. If a trade is to be practiced, work can also be carried out in other trades. Prerequisite: There must be a technical or professional connection or an economic complement between the craft practiced and the other craft and the work in the registered craft must predominate. Anyone who personally meets the requirements for entry in the Register of Craftsmen and practises the relevant craft can also obtain a license to practise in accordance with Section 7a HwO for another trade subject to licensing in Annex A or for essential activities thereof if the knowledge and skills required for this are proven. Previous professional experience and activities must also be taken into account.

Sachverhalt

In the case of an employed operations manager, it should be noted that they are only eligible for registration if they actually manage the business in technical terms during normal working hours. In addition, the manager's activities must be adequately remunerated.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

- Copy of identity card or passport
- Proof of qualifications: (certified) copies of certificates of passed examinations
- Copy of business registration (can be submitted later if necessary after entry in the register of craftsmen)
- In the case of civil law companies, the articles of association and the manager's declaration
- if a manager is employed:
 - employment contract
 - plant manager's declaration
- Registration for social insurance
- Proof of qualification of the operations manager
- For companies, a complete, up-to-date extract from the commercial register
- authorization to practice, if applicable
- Exemption permit, if applicable

Voraussetzungen

- Master craftsman's certificate

You will be entered in the Chamber of Crafts register if you or your company manager has successfully passed the master craftsman's examination in a craft requiring a license:

- that corresponds to the craft that is to be practiced or
- in a craft requiring a license that is technically related to this craft.
- Note: If these requirements are not met, exceptions can be applied for in certain cases.

Exceptions

The Crafts Code contains provisions according to which the applicant or the company management may also

- as a graduate of universities and technical colleges

Sachverhalt

(e.g. as a graduate engineer)

- with a German state or state-recognized examination equivalent to the master craftsman's examination (§ 7 Para. 2 HwO) can be entered in the register of craftsmen. The prerequisite is that the study or school focus of your examination corresponds to the craft to be registered.
- with a license to practice according to § 7a HwO:
 - This is awarded to anyone who can prove that they have the necessary knowledge and skills for another craft listed in Annex A of the HwO or for essential activities of this craft.
- with authorization to practice according to § 7b HwO:
 - Experienced journeymen can become self-employed, provided they can demonstrate at least six years of practical experience in the trade and have worked in a managerial position for at least four of these years.
- with exceptional authorization §§ 8, 9 Para. 1 No. 1 HwO:
 - In exceptional cases, an exemption permit must be granted if the knowledge and skills required to practise the craft independently are proven. An exceptional case exists, for example, if taking a master craftsman's examination at the time of application or thereafter would represent an unreasonable burden.

The following applies to foreign applicants:

- When you take up a craft, you must be entered in the register of craftsmen. The conditions of the Crafts Code also apply here. This also applies to foreign companies from countries outside the European Economic Area in the case of short-term skilled trade assignments (assembly work, work contract services). If you do not have a master craftsman's certificate or proof of an equivalent German examination or are not already registered in the Register of Craftsmen with another craft, it is possible under certain conditions to
