Teaser	If you want to temporarily take weapons or ammunition from Germany abroad, temporarily take them to Germany or take them through Germany, you need a permit.
Volltext	In order to be allowed to take weapons into Germany, you must prove your need, your reliability under weapons law, your personal suitability and expertise. If you are a citizen of an EU member state as well as Switzerland, Liechtenstein, Norway and Iceland, the European firearms pass is sufficient proof. If you are a citizen of a third country, you can provide evidence in the form of meaningful official documents from your home country with a German translation. If, as a citizen of a third country, you are unable to provide information on weapons and ammunition when applying, you must do so at the latest when entering the country. You must always state the reason why you want to bring weapons and ammunition to Germany temporarily, for example an invitation to hunt, to a shooting competition or to a traditional event. If you are applying for a shooting team, for example, you can enter the names of all participants on a separate sheet and enclose it with the application. The permit will then be issued for all applicants together. You do not need a permit if you come from an EU member state as well as from Switzerland, Liechtenstein and Iceland.

- as a sport shooter up to 6 firearms and the corresponding ammunition, and
- as a traditional shooter up to 3 single-shot or repeating long guns and the corresponding ammunition want to take with you to Germany. However, the weapons you are taking with you must be entered in your European Firearms Pass. As a citizen of a third country, you do not have to prove your age of majority and expert knowledge in these cases.

You do not need a European Firearms Pass if you are a sports marksman or a traditional marksman and want to take certain weapons with you from Austria to Bavaria or vice versa.

You also do not need a permit to take weapons and ammunition to Germany if you are

- take weapons and ammunition with you for which you have permission to acquire and possess (Waffenbesitzkarte - WBK),
- carry signal weapons and the corresponding ammunition on board ships for reasons of safety, or
- carry weapons and ammunition on board a ship or aircraft that are permanently kept under lock and key in Germany. These weapons and ammunition must be reported immediately to the competent authority and must be re-exported from Germany within one month at the latest.

If you wish to take weapons and ammunition from Germany to an EU member state, Switzerland, Liechtenstein, Norway or Iceland, you will require

- a permit to acquire and possess weapons and ammunition (Waffenbesitzkarte - WBK),
- a European firearms pass in which the weapons you wish to take with you are registered as well as
- the consent of the country to which you intend to take the weapons and ammunition, or credible proof that no permission is required.

You must also ensure the safe transport of the weapons and ammunition. For this purpose, you can also hire a forwarding agent. Before taking them with you, you should inform yourself about the conditions of the state under which the taking is permitted or not permitted.

If you want to take weapons and ammunition from Germany to a third country, you do not need a German permit. Here, too, you should inform yourself about the conditions of the state under which the transport is permitted or not permitted.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

Germany within one month at the latest.

- When taking weapons and ammunition from Germany to an EU member state or Liechtenstein, Switzerland, Norway and Iceland: European firearms pass required, in which the weapons and ammunition are registered, as well as permission to acquire and possess these weapons and ammunition (weapons possession card - WBK), if necessary, a permit from the state to which the weapons and ammunition are to be taken, or credible proof that a permit to take them is not required, guarantee of safe transport of weapons and ammunition, possibility of commissioning a forwarding agent.
- Carriage of certain weapons between Bavaria and Austria does not require a European firearms pass for sport shooters in accordance with an international treaty.
- Taking weapons and ammunition to a third country does not require a German weapons permit. However, it is recommended to inform oneself in advance about the regulations of the third country with regard to taking along weapons and ammunition.
- Bringing weapons and ammunition to Germany is permitted if the need, reliability under weapons law, personal suitability and expertise are proven. For citizens of EU member states, Liechtenstein, Switzerland, Norway and Iceland, the European firearms pass is sufficient proof. Citizens from third countries can present official documents with a German translation as proof. Citizens from third countries can also provide information on weapons and ammunition only upon entry, not yet required when applying.
- Reasons must be given for bringing weapons and ammunition to Germany, e.g. participation in a hunting or shooting competition. The invitation stating the date and place of the event is sufficient as proof.
- The application can also be made for a whole team. For this purpose, all members must be indicated, for example, on an additional sheet. The permit will then be issued for the whole team.
