In the case of the public tender (national), all companies that legally carry on their trade can offer the desired services (tender). This also applies to tenders under the EU procurement regime (open procedure, EU-wide); this is to be carried out for deliveries and services with an order volume of 200,000.00 euros or more. The State of Hesse and the Hessian municipalities publish their tenders in the Hessian Tender Database – HAD (www.had.de), which may also be responsible for the announcement in accordance with the EU procurement regime.

Hint: EU tenders must also be published in the EU Official Journal.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

You can find out which documents, samples or samples you need when submitting your bid in the tender documents.

Voraussetzungen

Your tender must meet the substantive and formal requirements described in the tender documents.

Kosten

For the request of the tender documents, the maximum cost of reproduction will be charged. The amount of the costs can be found in the announcement of the call for tenders.

Verfahrensablauf

Find out more about participation competitions in the Hessian tender database (www.had.de). If you would like to participate, please submit an application to the awarding body to participate in the competition. The awarding authority evaluates the applications. Once the awarding body has selected you, it will invite you to submit a bid. It transmits the tender documents. When preparing a quote, you need to consider various formal and content requirements, for example:

- the legally binding signature of the offer,
- timely adherence to the deadline,
- the full registration of the prices demanded, and
- the declarations and evidence required by the client.

Attention: You are not allowed to change the contract documents! You will find out in the tender documents whether you can or must submit the documents electronically. In this case, you must provide the documents with a qualified electronic signature and transmit the data in encrypted form.

Hint: The contracting authority must allow a sufficient period of time for tenders. The awarding authority will not open the tenders until after the deadline for tenders has expired. It examines tenders received properly and within the deadline according to the following criteria:

- Completeness
- professional correctness and
- arithmetical accuracy.

With a few exceptions, you will be awarded the contract in writing. At the same time, the award is considered to be the conclusion of the contract. The awarding authority will also inform you if you are not awarded the contract.

Bearbeitungsdauer

Frist

The deadlines can be found in the tender documents.
