Volltext	Civic engagement is of central importance for the cohesion of our society. Without the participation of its citizens, the state would not be able to solve the social challenges of the present and the future. Many people in Hesse volunteer, the possibilities and fields of application are as diverse as the interests and abilities of the people: Whether in sports, in the youth or senior sector, in the fire brigade, in voluntary social services, in the parish, in choirs or art associations, in initiatives in environmental or animal protection: Voluntary and charitable work of like-minded people is as important for our common good as it is irreplaceable. That deserves recognition! For this reason, the Hessian state government, together with the districts as well as the independent and special status cities, has introduced the Ehrenamts-Card as a sign of gratitude and appreciation for all those who are particularly committed to society. Holders of the Ehrenamts-Card can take advantage of a wealth of attractive discounts throughout Hesse. These include top-class sports and cultural events as well as cinemas, museums, adult education courses, swimming pools and other leisure facilities. In addition to permanent discounts, attractive special promotions, competitions and free tickets are also offered again and again.
