to the examination to the Chamber of Tax Consultants in Hesse by the end of April of the respective examination year.

If you fail the exam, you can retake it up to two times.

Note: Nationals from the European Union (EU), the European Economic Area (EEA) and Switzerland can take an aptitude test instead of the tax consultancy examination if they have a qualification that entitles them to provide independent assistance in tax matters; see "Applying for admission to the aptitude test for assistance in tax matters".

Erforderliche Unterlagen

- Proof and certificates of professional qualifications and activities (photocopies or copies of certificates and other documents please with official certification)
- Curriculum vitae

Please refer to the relevant application form to find out which other documents you need to submit.

Voraussetzungen

You can be admitted to the tax consultant examination in Hesse if you

- are predominantly employed in Hesse or, if you are not employed, live in Hesse
- have completed a degree in economics, law or another university degree with an economics specialization and have then worked for 2 years in the field of taxes administered by the federal or state tax authorities (if the standard period of study is less than 4 years: 3 years of professional experience)
- have passed the final examination for a commercial apprenticeship and then worked for 8 years in the field of taxes administered by the federal or state tax authorities (if you have successfully passed the examination to become a certified accountant or tax specialist: 6 years of professional experience).

Tip: If you do not yet meet the required periods of professional practice at the time of application, you can be admitted to the examination on condition that you have fulfilled this admission requirement by the start of the written examination.
