Sachverhalt

Find out whether your immigration authority offers the electronic application for a residence permit.

- If the application is only possible in person, make an appointment with the Foreigners' Registration Office. You must be accompanied during the appointment by at least one legal representative or other person who looks after you instead of the legal representative in Germany if you have not yet reached the age of 18.

During the appointment, your application will be received and your supporting documents will be checked (bring them with you to the appointment). Your fingerprints will be taken for the production of an electronic residence permit (eAT).

- In the event of an electronic application, the Foreigners' Registration Office will contact you upon receipt of your online application in order to make an appointment at the Foreigners' Registration Office if necessary. You must be accompanied during the appointment by at least one legal representative or other person who looks after you instead of the legal representative in Germany if you have not yet reached the age of 18.

During the appointment, your documents will be checked (bring them with you to the appointment) and your fingerprints will be taken for the production of the electronic residence title (eAT).

If your application is granted, the Foreigners' Registration Office will arrange for the eAT.

After about six to eight weeks, the eAT can be picked up at the Foreigners' Registration Office.

Fees apply for the issuance of the residence permit. The timing and form of payment vary depending on the authority.
