Extension of a residence permit for victims of a crime for trafficking in human beings.

Volltext

You are in possession of a residence permit for victims of a crime according to §§ 232 to 233a StGB (human trafficking). In this case, the immigration authority should extend your residence permit for another two years if humanitarian or personal reasons or public interests require your continued presence in Germany.

Humanitarian reasons exist, for example, if you no longer have a livelihood in your country of origin or if you have to reckon with disadvantages, exclusion or retaliation due to your participation in criminal proceedings.

In principle, you are entitled to a residence permit.

You are still entitled to benefits under SGB II (basic provision for jobseekers) or basic security in old age or in the event of reduced earning capacity, child benefit.

Family reunification for your spouse and the minor child (so-called nuclear family) is only possible for reasons of international law or humanitarian law or to safeguard the political interests of the Federal Republic of Germany. The family members must themselves meet the conditions for admission from abroad on international law or humanitarian grounds,
