Teaser	As a skilled worker with vocational training, you can obtain a residence permit for a period of six months to look for a job if you meet certain requirements.
Volltext	You can obtain a residence permit for job search for skilled workers if you have completed qualified vocational training in Germany. Qualified vocational training exists if you have completed vocational training in a state-recognised or comparably regulated training occupation. The training period must have been at least two years. If you have completed your vocational training abroad, the equivalence of your qualification with the German, qualified vocational training must be determined by the responsible recognition body (e.g. the Chamber of Industry or Commerce). become. If you wish to work in a regulated profession, the required professional permit must have already been issued or promised when the residence permit for job search is issued. Regulated professions are professional activities the taking-up or pursuit of which is subject by legislative, regulatory or administrative provisions to the possession of certain professional qualifications. Regulated professions in Germany are, for example, doctor, nurse, lawyer, teacher, educator or engineer.
