Teaser	When moving to a new city or municipality, it is important to have the place of residence in the passport changed immediately.
Volltext	If an entry in the passport is incorrect, the holder of a passport is obliged to immediately present the passport to the passport authority. If the entry on the place of residence in the passport changes due to an influx from another city or municipality, this entry will be changed by the competent passport authority of the new municipality of residence. In addition to changing entries in the passport for the place of residence, changes to the entries of size and eye color are also permitted. Changes other than those mentioned are not possible under the Passport Act. If it is necessary to change other entries, a new passport
