This notification must be repeated annually if required by the activity.

The competent authority checks whether the notification has the required content in accordance with Section 15 para. 2 sentence 3 RDG.

As soon as the notification is complete, the authority will carry out a temporary registration or the extension of the registration for a period of one year and arrange for the public announcement in the Legal Services Register.

They are now registered for a period of one year and can be found by the public via the "Announcement platform for extrajudicial legal services".

In addition to the registered providers, prohibitions on the provision of legal services can also be viewed via the "Announcement platform for extrajudicial legal services". This strengthens the protection of those seeking legal services and legal transactions.
