Volltext	As a widow or widower, you can apply to receive a settlement instead of the monthly compensation payments. The application must be submitted within one year of the compensation payment being approved. This option gives surviving dependants greater freedom of choice. No special justification for the choice of compensation or the fulfillment of certain conditions is required. The decision as to whether a settlement is appropriate or sensible in view of the survivor's personal situation is his or her sole responsibility, although advice on this can also be provided as part of case management. The severance payment amounts to EUR 126,600. Monthly compensation payments already made must be offset against the severance payment. All claims to monthly compensation payments are settled with the payment of the settlement. Widows and widowers of an injured party who has not died as a result of an injury can, under certain conditions, receive a settlement instead of a monthly compensation payment on application. The basic requirement is that the injury occurred before January
