Teaser	Are you a leaseholder, homeowner or landowner? Then you have to pay waste disposal charges.
Volltext	For the use of public waste disposal facilities, the waste management authorities (the municipalities belonging to the district, the cities not belonging to the district and the rural districts) charge fees to cover the associated costs in accordance with the provisions of the law on municipal charges. The expenses to be covered by the waste fee include in particular the costs for • Collection, transportation and disposal of waste from households as well as disposal waste from commercial enterprises, other commercial enterprises or public institutions, • the marketing of recyclable materials, • waste consulting, • planning, construction, operation, aftercare, recultivation and renaturation of waste recycling and disposal facilities and • the formation of reserves for the foreseeable future

Hinweise	As a service for those responsible for waste disposal, the Ministry of the Environment and the Ministry of the Interior, which is responsible for fee legislation, have developed model statutes in cooperation with the municipal umbrella organizations, which have subsequently been used by a large number of Hessian waste management companies to develop their own fee statutes. However, it is up to the respective municipal bodies to adapt or change these according to their own criteria and taking local circumstances into account.
