Sachverhalt

para. 1;

2. agreements by which a contractual relationship under the law of obligations regarding the use or utilization of a plot of land, building or part of a building is entered into or extended for a fixed period of more than one year.

(2) In the formally defined redevelopment area, the written approval of the municipality is required for

1. the legal sale of a plot of land and the creation and sale of a heritable building right;

2. the creation of a right encumbering the property; this does not apply to the creation of a right in connection with the implementation of construction measures within the meaning of Section 148 (2);

3. a contract under the law of obligations by which an obligation to one of the legal transactions mentioned in number 1 or 2 is established; if the contract under the law of obligations has been approved, the legal transaction in rem carried out in execution of this contract shall also be deemed to have been approved;

4. the creation, amendment or revocation of a building charge;

5. the division of a plot of land.

Kosten

Since the municipality issues the permit, it also determines the amount of costs (fees, expenses, etc.) incurred.

Verfahrensablauf

The procedure is the responsibility of the municipality. Questions on this point should be addressed to the municipality.

Bearbeitungsdauer

This depends on the type and scope of the project. It is recommended that you enquire about this yourself with the responsible municipality.
