Volltext	Translators (written translation) and interpreters (oral translation) can be generally sworn and publicly appointed for language translation for judicial, official and notarial purposes in accordance with the Interpreters Act of the State of Saxony-Anhalt (DolmG LSA). The generally sworn and publicly appointed translators and interpreters are entered in an electronic directory (translators' and interpreters' directory). The register is accessible on the Internet and can be viewed by anyone. Entries in the electronic directory can be processed via the state coordinators at the regional court in Halle. The advantage of the general oath is that if a court or notary public in the district in which the interpreter has been sworn in, it is sufficient to invoke the general oath instead of taking the oath in individual cases. https://www.gerichts-dolmetscher.de/Recherche/ https://www.gerichts-dolmetscher.de/Recherche/
