examination. A few years ago, the Otto von Guericke University Magdeburg converted its teacher training to a Bachelor-Master system. The Master of Education corresponds to the 1st state examination.

After successfully completing your studies, you will acquire practical skills and abilities as a teacher in the subsequent preparatory service. The preparatory service generally lasts 16 months. The training takes place at state seminars for teaching professions in Halle and Magdeburg and at approved training schools. The preparatory service concludes with the career examination for a teaching profession.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

- Curriculum vitae in tabular form with handwritten signature
- Copy of the certificate of general university entrance qualification or university entrance qualification
- officially certified copy of the certificate of the First State Examination or the certificate of an examination recognized as equivalent (e.g. Master of Education) or a copy of the provisional certificate of grades
- Copy of birth certificate or excerpt from the family book
- If applicable, a copy of the marriage certificate or an extract from the family book
- if applicable, a copy of the birth certificates or corresponding extract from the family book of your children permanently living in the household or other persons for whom there is a maintenance obligation
- Confirmation of proof according to § 20 para. 9 p. 1 no. 3 of the Infection Protection Act (IfSG)

If you want to apply for the preparatory service for the teaching profession at vocational schools, you will also need:

- Certificates and evidence of a total of one year of practical work related to the professional field. Proof can be provided in the form of job references, internship certificates (duration/scope of time must be apparent) or, alternatively, through completed vocational training with practical activity (not pure school training).
