Teaser	You can find out how the European elections will be held here.
Volltext	You cast your vote on a ballot paper. You will receive this from the election board when you enter the polling station. With the ballot paper you then go individually to the Polling booth. There you mark your desired list nomination with a cross or otherwise. Then fold the ballot paper so that your identification cannot be recognized. The secretary of the electoral board will then check whether you are listed on the voters' register, if necessary after you have presented your election notification or your ID card on request. If this is the case, you can put your ballot paper in the ballot box. The secretary then notes that you have cast your vote.
