Teaser	As an EU citizen living in Germany, you can take part in the European elections if you are entered on the electoral roll.
Volltext	If you live in Germany as an EU citizen and would like to take part in the European elections, you must first be entered in the voters' register. This is done either automatically ex officio or you have to submit an application for it. If you were already entered in the voters' register in previous European elections and have not moved abroad in the meantime, you will be entered in the voters' register ex officio and do not need to submit an application. In other cases, you must apply for inclusion in the electoral roll.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	Application in accordance with Annex 2A of the European Election Regulations
Voraussetzungen	You will be entered on the electoral roll ex officio if, on election day:
