Sachverhalt

- Physical characteristics, such as gender, skin, hair or eye color, height

With your right to restriction of processing, you can initially prevent your personal data from continuing to be processed electronically. As soon as the rights of the data controller have expired, your data will be permanently deleted. You can only invoke your right to restriction of processing under certain conditions.

You can assert the right to restriction of processing against public and non-public bodies. Public bodies are, for example, authorities, non-public bodies are, for example, commercial enterprises, associations or clubs.

You must request the restriction of the processing of your personal data directly from the relevant public or non-public body.

If you wish to submit a written request by post or require general information, please contact the relevant authority with your questions.

The contact details of the relevant authority can be found in the list of authorities on the "service.bund.de - Service Online" portal.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

- Copy of your identity card or
- Alternatively: Copy of your passport in connection with the copy of your registration certificate

Voraussetzungen

You may request the restricted processing of your personal data if:

- you have requested the rectification of inaccurate data and the data controller is examining this request,
- you have objected to the processing and it is still necessary to check whether the interests of the data controller outweigh your interests,
- you expressly request restriction instead of erasure, or
- the data controller no longer needs your data, but you still wish to use it for its own purposes.
