Teaser	As a winegrower, you must obtain a planting permit before planting.
Volltext	You must obtain a planting permit before you carry out any planting. If you carry out a planting on an identical vineyard as the previous grubbing-up and the resulting planting potential still exists, the planting is deemed to have been approved. In this case, you do not need to submit an application. In Saxony-Anhalt, you must submit an application if the replanting is to take place on another area of the farm. In Saxony-Anhalt, an application must be submitted if the rearing is to take place on another area of the farm.
