If you give up the operation of your trade, you must deregister your trade. The same applies if you relocate your business to another municipality. You must then deregister your business in the previous municipality and register it in the new municipality/city if you continue to operate it. If you intend to change the legal form of your business, a business deregistration is also required. You must first deregister your business under the previous legal form. You then re-register your business under the new legal form.

Trade deregistration in accordance with § 14 or § 55c of the Trade Regulation Act (GewO)

If you give up the operation of your trade, you must deregister your trade. The same applies if you relocate your business to another municipality. You must then deregister your business in the previous municipality and register it in the new municipality/city if you continue to operate it. If you intend to change the legal form of your business, a business deregistration is also required. You must first deregister your business under the previous legal form. You then re-register your business under the new legal form.

Note: If you relocate the operation of your business within the municipality, you must re-register your business.

- for individual trades, individual trader
- in the case of partnerships (e.g. OHG, BGB-Gesellschaft), the partners authorised to manage the business
- the legal representative in the case of corporations (e.g. GmbH, AG)

Verfahrensablauf

You can deregister your business in person, in writing or electronically.

You can obtain the mandatory form "Business Deregistration" (GewA 3) from the responsible office. You can also download the form from Amt24 (see -> Online application and forms).

Personal deregistration

- Fill out the form and present the required documents to the responsible office.
- If all documents are complete and you pay the fees due straight away, you will receive a receipt immediately.

Note: You can also complete the form on site. If you have any questions, the staff responsible will be happy to help you.

Written cancellation

- Fill in the form, sign it and send it to the municipality with the required documents.
- If all documents are complete, you will receive the receipt and the fee notice by post, usually within three days.
- If necessary, you will first receive the notification of fees and must submit proof of payment before the receipt is issued.

Electronic deregistration

- If the "Business Deregistration" form (GewA 3) is sent electronically, the signature field provided in box 30 is omitted.
- The municipality will request the necessary documents and may use procedures to establish the identity of the notifying party, such as PIN/TAN procedures, electronic proof of identity in accordance with Section 18 of the ID Card Act, De-Mail in accordance with Section 5 of the De-Mail Act, written assurance of identity or sending a copy of the ID card or passport.
