new place of residence cannot automatically include your details in the electoral roll.

If you are not entered in the electoral roll of the municipality you are moving to, you will receive a polling card for your former place of residence and will be able to vote there. If you only move within the municipality or city and your new home is in a different electoral district, you will remain on the electoral roll of the electoral district for which you were registered on the 42nd day before the election.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

If an application form is available, please use it. An informal written application should contain at least the following:

- The wording of your request "Application for entry in the electoral roll"
- Your first name and surname
- Your date of birth
- Your new home address
- Your signature

Voraussetzungen

- You are eligible to vote in the respective election.
- You register your main residence with the city or municipal administration between the 42nd and 21st day before the election.

Kosten

none

Verfahrensablauf

- Register your new main place of residence with the city or municipal administration.
- The registration office will inform you of the possibility of being entered on the electoral roll; you can apply for this in person on site or submit a letter of application by post.
- If you have been entered on the electoral roll, you will receive the polling card and postal voting documents (if you have applied for them).

The municipal or local authority of your previous place of residence will be informed ex officio and your entry will be removed from the electoral roll there.
