Handlungsgrundlage	• Gesetz zu dem Haager Übereinkommen vom 5.10.1961 zur Befreiung ausländischer öffentlicher Urkunden von der Legalisation • Verordnung über die Ausstellung der Apostille nach Artikel 3 des Haager Übereinkommens vom 5.10.1961 zur Befreiung ausländischer öffentlicher Urkunden von der Legalisation
Teaser	The legalisation of foreign public documents is associated with a not inconsiderable expenditure of time and money. For this reason, it has been declared unnecessary in some cases by international treaties. These agreements include the Convention on the Exemption of Foreign Public Documents from Legalisation (Hague Apostille Convention). The apostille then takes the place of legalisation as proof of originality.

For this reason, it has been declared unnecessary in some cases by international treaties. These agreements include the Convention on the Exemption of Foreign Public Documents from Legalisation (Hague Apostille Convention). The apostille then takes the place of legalisation as proof of originality. This is issued by the competent internal authority of the state that issued the document. In this case, the involvement of the state's diplomatic mission or consular post in Germany is no longer necessary. In addition, there are also conventions with the consequence of mutual recognition of the respective

Which states recognise the "Hague Apostille" can be found in the Convention on the Exemption of Foreign Public Documents from Legalisation (Apostille Convention). The German Patent and Trade Mark Office grants the apostille for documents of the Federal Patent Court and the German Patent Office.
