	for the promotion of charitable, benevolent or ecclesiastical purposes. In the case of tax-privileged associations, it is generally to be assumed that the activity also serves the promotion of these tax-privileged purposes. Accordingly, the tax exemption is also granted if the activity is carried out within the framework of a special purpose business. The tax exemption does not apply to an activity in a taxable commercial business. A part-time activity may not take up more than one third of a comparable full-time occupation. Claiming the honorary and exercise leader lump-sum allowance You can only claim the lump-sum allowance for voluntary work and the lump-sum allowance for training supervisors if they are two different activities (with the same or different corporate bodies). These activities must • be carried out on a part-time basis, • be separable from each other, • be separately remunerated, • be clearly regulated and • actually be carried out.
