assistance for use in EU countries)

- Multilingual marriage certificate (for use abroad)
- Certified printout from the marriage register

A certified printout from the marriage register shows all the data that the registry office has entered in connection with your marriage. You will receive the certificate, including any subsequent certificates, as a printout from the electronic register.

If the personal details of the spouse change, for example due to a change of name or divorce, the marriage entry will be supplemented by a subsequent certificate. A new marriage certificate can then be issued on request.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

To apply for a marriage certificate, you will need

Verfahrensablauf

You can apply for a marriage certificate in person or in writing.

Applying in person:

- An appointment may be required for a personal application.
- Go to the registry office that notarized the marriage. If you got married in Saarland, you can also apply for a marriage certificate at any other registry office in Saarland, as long as the entry is recorded electronically. This has regularly been the case since 2009.
- To prove your identity, present your identity card or passport.
- You usually pay the fee directly at the registry office when you apply.
- In addition to yourself, a person you trust may also order and collect the certificate on your behalf. In addition to a written power of attorney issued by you, the person must present your identity card or passport (original or copy) and their own identity card or passport.
