Teaser	If you have lost a weapon, ammunition or a permit under weapons law, such as a weapons possession card or a weapons license, you must report this immediately to the responsible weapons authority.
Volltext	You must immediately report the loss of weapons, ammunition and weapons permit documents that require a permit. Weapons permit documents include: • Weapons possession card, • ammunition acquisition certificate, • firearms license, • small firearms license, • Shooting permit, • European firearms pass, • replacement certificate for weapons possession card or weapons license, • other permit documents (e.g. weapons trading or manufacturing permit, carry or transfer permit, exemption permit for carrying weapons at public events). You may also indicate the loss of multiple weapons/ammunition and permit certificates in one report. If you indicate that you have lost permit documents, you should also request that replacement documents be issued to you at the same time as you file the report. In addition, you must report to the police that you have lost weapons and/or permit certificates.
