are parked

- for boarding and disembarking as well as loading and unloading

The regulation therefore also applies, for example, to

- Pilots
- Student pilots and trainee pilots
- Members of airport-based clubs
- Student interns and trainees
- Suppliers of goods and similar suppliers
- Traders and tradespeople and
- Employees of cleaning companies

The background check checks whether you pose a risk to the safety of civil air traffic. The check includes

- Personal details,
- past periods of employment and training and a record of any gaps in the past five years,
- Your places of residence in the past ten years,
- A check of criminal records,
- information from authorities.

The fact that you are being checked serves the safety of civil aviation. As a rule, you must apply for a background check yourself via your employer; your employer will bear the costs.

Duty to cooperate: You are obliged to cooperate in your check. In rare cases, this may also mean that you have to undergo a test for narcotics. As a rule, your reliability will be denied if

- you have been sentenced to a prison sentence, youth sentence or fine of at least 60 daily rates for an intentional criminal offense or
- you have been sentenced twice or more often to a lesser fine and the last sentence was less than five years ago
- you have been sentenced to at least one year's imprisonment for a crime or other intentional criminal offense and the last conviction was less than ten years ago
- you have been under observation by the Federal

Office for the Protection of the Constitution in the past ten years and, for example, efforts have been identified that are directed against the free democratic basic order, the existence or security of the federal government or a state.

You can waive a background check if you

- have already been checked in accordance with the Security Check Act,
- only need occasional access to security areas at the airport and can therefore work, for example, with a day pass (observe the regulations of the respective airport) or
- work exclusively in generally accessible areas of the airport (public areas).

Erforderliche Unterlagen

General:

- copy of identity card on both sides or
- Copy of passport on both sides
- Places of residence for the last 10 years,
- Periods of employment in the last 5 years (exact date)

- Send the completed document digitally to the relevant authority.
- For employees and private individuals: Print out the application PDF after completion, sign it and send it by post to the competent authority.
- The remaining procedural steps are the same as the written procedure.

The aviation security authority will then review the application by checking all the information you have provided. For this purpose, the aviation security authority will obtain information from, among others

- Police
- Office for the Protection of the Constitution
- law enforcement authorities
- intelligence services
- civil registers
- immigration authorities if you are not a German citizen.

If the aviation security authority has further questions during your check, the aviation security authority may ask you to comment on the questions. You are generally obliged to actively participate in the check.

After the check, you and your employer will receive an official notification from the aviation security authority about the result of your background check.

If the result is positive:

- your background check is valid for 5 years,
- but can be revoked during this time if the necessary requirements no longer apply.

In the event of a negative result, an action may be brought before the Saarland Administrative Court, Kaiser-Wilhelm-Straße 15, 66740 Saarlouis, in writing or for the record before the clerk of this court within one month of notification.

Bearbeitungsdauer

Processing takes between 3 days and 6 weeks. On average, the processing time should be one month.
