age of 18. A custodial parent can be represented by an authorized representative of the other parent when submitting the application.

- For children and young people under the age of 16, all custodial parents submit the application jointly. The children and young people must always appear in person, as the Citizens' Registration Office will check their identity. They must also sign if they are 10 years or older at the time of application.
- When applying, you must declare whether your fingerprints are to be stored on the ID chip. From August 2, 2021, the declaration to provide fingerprints will no longer be required, as fingerprints will be taken for storage in the document every time you apply for an ID card. Exception: children under the age of 6 will not be fingerprinted.
- The ID card is produced centrally by Bundesdruckerei GmbH in Berlin.
- You can arrange a collection appointment online, by e-mail or by telephone at many citizens' offices. You can find out which options your local citizens' office offers on their website, for example.

Bearbeitungsdauer

It usually takes at least 2 weeks from the date of application before you can collect your ID card from the Citizens' Registration Office.

Frist

If you have just turned 16, have German citizenship and are registered in Germany, the application must be submitted immediately if you do not have a valid passport document, i.e. a passport or temporary passport.
