Sachverhalt

1. belong to an estate or an insolvency estate or
 2. are sold due to the closure of a business or
 3. are sold by public auction on the basis of statutory provisions (Section 383 (3) of the German Civil Code) and
 4. are offered in open sales outlets and which are unused or whose intended use consists in their consumption, the written notification must also include
- the reason for the auction and
 - the name and address of the customer
- must be stated.

Voraussetzungen

In order to be able to notify the competent authority of an auction, you must have a valid license to operate as an auctioneer in accordance with the Trade, Commerce and Industry Regulation Act.

No notification is required for the auctioning of agricultural inventory, agricultural and forestry products or livestock (see Section 3 (1) sentence 2 of the Auctioneers Ordinance).

Subsequent notification of individual auctioned items is possible if the requirements of Section 3 (2a) of the Auctioneers Ordinance are met.

A new auction may only be started at the location of the previous auction if the previous auction ended at least 5 days ago. An auction may not exceed a duration of 6 days. In individual cases, the local authority may grant exceptions to the above time limits. (cf. § 3 Para. 3 of the Auctioneers Ordinance).

Note: if you wish to apply for an exemption from the requirements, please use the "Notification of an auction and application for exemption from notification regulations"
