Teaser	You can apply for state funding from the Saarland State Office for Monuments for the protection, preservation, restoration and partial reconstruction of monuments.
Volltext	The state grants subsidies for measures that serve to safeguard, preserve and restore architectural monuments, movable monuments and ground monuments. The state is responsible for the protection and preservation of monuments. The specialist and enforcement authority is the Saarland State Monuments Office. It is the duty of every monument owner to preserve and maintain the monument. To this end, preparatory investigations and expert opinions may be called upon by the Saarland State Monuments Office if necessary in individual cases. Every monument owner is entitled to the legally regulated tax relief if they maintain and use their monument in consultation with the Landesdenkmalamt as the responsible authority. For the protection, preservation, restoration and partial reconstruction of monuments, it is possible to submit an application for state funding to the Saarland State Office for Monuments. The object of the funding is always the additional costs incurred as a result of the monument. The investigations and expert opinions used by the Saarland State Office for Monuments in individual cases are part of an application for the approval of financial grants for the preservation of the monument. for the preservation of the monument.
