Teaser	The electoral roll includes all citizens who are likely to be eligible to vote on election day and who have their main residence in the municipality.
Volltext	An official voters' register is kept in each electoral district for upcoming elections (European, Bundestag, state and local elections). All citizens who are likely to be eligible to vote on election day and have their main residence in the municipality are entered in the electoral roll. Eligible voters who are registered in the municipality on the cut-off date (42nd day before the election) are entered in the electoral roll ex officio and notified at least three weeks before the election day (election notification). If you are eligible to vote and have not received a voter's notification, you should contact your municipality immediately.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	If necessary, evidence to prove the requirement for the necessary correction of the electoral roll (e.g. identity card).
