Sachverhalt

Germany: certificate of good conduct (Führungszeugnis) if residing abroad: documents from the applicant's country of origin proving that you are personally reliable and fit to provide the service offered

- The competent authority may request additional documents, e.g. curriculum vitae evidence that you have undergone advanced training planning and other documents that can be used to assess the applicant's fitness for the profession certification from the respective employer

Note: The conditions of registration stipulated in the Architects Act are highly differentiated (e.g. with regard to training qualifications). In individual cases, the Chamber of Architects may therefore request other documents in addition to those listed. Please request further information from the Chamber of Architects in plenty of time. You should also refer to the notes on filling out the application form.

Voraussetzungen

The competent authority will register you in the List of Architects if

- you reside and your business has an office in Baden-Württemberg, or if you mostly work in Baden-Württemberg, and
- you are professionally qualified as per the Architects Act (Architektengesetz).

Note: Citizens of EU/EEA member states and citizens of other countries without a residence or business location in Baden-Württemberg may render architectural services on a temporary basis. You must notify the Chamber of Architects of this and furnish corresponding evidence.

Kosten
