Sachverhalt

• From 1 May 2025, only digital photographs will be accepted for passport applications. Depending on the equipment available at the authority, you can have the photo taken on site when you apply or you can have the photo taken in advance by a certified service provider (e.g. photographer or photo service at dm drugstores). The photo is then stored by the service provider in a secure cloud. You will receive a printout of a data matrix code (similar to a QR code), which the authority can use to retrieve your photo from the cloud. During the transition period, a paper-based photo may also be accepted in exceptional cases and under certain conditions. Please contact your authority in advance to find out about the options available there!

Tip: Please enquire with the passport authority in advance about any other documents you may need to submit.

Voraussetzungen

- You have German citizenship.
- Your name has changed, for example following a divorce.
- There must be no grounds for refusing to issue a passport, such as the assumption that you wish to avoid prosecution, enforcement of a sentence or a statutory maintenance obligation by leaving the country.

- The fee for having your photo taken at the authority using Bundesdruckerei's photo technology: EUR 6.00
- The fee for optional direct mailing: EUR 15.00

Please note:

- If you apply for a passport at a German embassy or consular mission, for example if you lose your passport, you will have to pay a surcharge of EUR 31.00.
- You can also submit the application to a passport authority that does not have local jurisdiction. This authority must process your application if you provide important reasons. The authority may also charge a surcharge for this processing.
- A different fee may be charged if the authority uses photo capture technology from a manufacturer other than Bundesdruckerei.

Verfahrensablauf

- You must apply for your passport in person.
- You must provide a formally valid signature and complete the declaration of German citizenship.
- The submission of fingerprints (flat print of the left and right index finger) is required by law for the application. Note: If an index finger is missing, the quality of the fingerprint is insufficient or the fingertip is injured, another print will be taken instead. Fingerprints will only not be taken if this is impossible for permanent medical reasons.
- When applying, you can have the photograph taken on site - depending on the equipment at the authority - or you can have the photograph taken in advance by a certified service provider (e.g. photographer or photo service at dm drugstores). The service provider will send you a printout of a data matrix code (similar to a QR code), which the authorities can use to retrieve your photo from the cloud.
- The passport is produced centrally by Bundesdruckerei in Berlin.
- You can collect the finished passport from the authority in due course. Depending on the municipality, you will be notified as soon as you can collect your passport. The notification information from the passport authority usually also contains a form for authorisation to collect your passport. This allows you to collect your passport yourself or have it collected by an authorised person. The authorised person must identify themselves to the passport authority beforehand and present the authorisation form.

- You must hand in your old passport when you receive the new document. If you wish, you can take your cancelled old passport back with you as a souvenir.
- From 1 May 2025, you can also select the "Direct delivery" option in the application process for a fee and receive the document delivered to your home address where it can be delivered. You must be at least 18 years old and submit the passport application to the authority at your place of residence within Germany. In addition, you must present yourself in person at the door of your home to the Postal delivery service with a valid German identity document (in this case: identity card or, if applicable, a second passport) and have the old passport cancelled when applying for the new passport. Residents of Büsingen (Hochrhein) and Helgoland cannot use the direct mail service.

Bearbeitungsdauer

It can take up to eight weeks from the date of application before you can collect your passport from the passport office. It is recommended that you apply for your passport in good time before travelling. If you need your passport more quickly, you can also apply for it using the express procedure. A surcharge is added to the fee for this. If the express application is received on time, your passport will usually be ready for collection from the passport office on the following third working day (Monday to Friday, excluding public holidays).

Frist

Period of validity The period of validity depends on your age:

- under 24 years of age: Passport is valid for six years
- from the age of 24: Passport is valid for ten years
