Teaser	Laboratories that carry out analyses of feed on behalf of feed companies are obliged to report unsafe feed.
Volltext	Laboratories that carry out analyses of feed on behalf of feed companies are obliged to report unsafe feed. As the person responsible or the person in charge of a laboratory, you must check the following questions in connection with the new reporting obligation: • Is it a feed sample taken in Germany? • Based on the analysis results, do you assume that the feed safety requirements are not being met? Is there therefore a marketing ban? Note: This reporting obligation supplements the obligations of feed business operators. They must immediately inform the authorities responsible for them of the measures taken if they assume that the feed they have placed on the market is not safe.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	You must provide the following information: • Time and result of the analysis • the analysis method used and • Person commissioning the analysis
Voraussetzungen	• You are responsible for a laboratory that carries out analyses of feed on behalf of feed companies. • You have taken a sample of a feedstuff in Germany and • based on the analysis results, you assume that the feed safety requirements are not met and that there is therefore a marketing ban.
