Hinweise

If you move within the same municipality, there is usually no transfer to the electoral roll of the electoral district in which your new main residence is located.

The only exception is if your eligibility to vote in the local council election changes as a result of your move within the municipality. If you re-register at the registration office up to 16 days before the election, you will be entered on the new electoral roll without having to submit an application. If you change your registration later, you can apply to the municipality for a ballot paper for the local council election in your new district.
