advertising events and recordings on radio and television, on sound and image carriers and for film and photo shoots: for children over 3 years of age up to 2 hours a day in the period from 8:00 to 17:00 for children over 6 years up to 3 hours a day in the time from 8.00 am to 10.00 pm

Rehearsals count as working hours and are included in the period of employment. As a rule, you will receive authorisation for a maximum of 30 days per calendar year and child. If the child is also employed at other locations, all working days are added together. After employment, you must grant the child a period of 14 hours off until the next employment. Attendance at school before the end of this period is not affected by this restriction. You are responsible for ensuring that the necessary measures are taken to protect the child against risks to life and health and to prevent detrimental physical and mental development before the start of employment. You are also responsible for the care and supervision of the child, even if you assign this task to a supervisor who must be carefully selected, appointed, instructed and monitored by you.

You will not be granted a licence for shows and performances by children:

- in cabarets
- in dance halls and similar establishments
- in amusement parks
- at funfairs
- at funfairs and similar events

The application must be submitted to your local trade supervisory authority. The licence is limited in time and can be revoked at any time. The supervisory authority determines how long, at what time and on what day the child may be employed. The duration and location of rest breaks and the maximum duration of daily employment are also determined. If you employ children without official authorisation, you are liable to prosecution.
