Teaser	Cultural projects in Mecklenburg-Vorpommern can be funded by the state under certain conditions.
Volltext	Purpose of the grant Funding is provided for the preservation and development of art and culture in Mecklenburg-Vorpommern. Funding is provided for basic cultural projects as well as projects of supra-regional or state-wide significance and other outstanding projects. Object of the grant As part of the basic provision of cultural services, cultural projects of libraries, music and youth art schools as well as socio-cultural institutions and projects of literature houses can be funded. Projects of supra-regional or state-wide significance and other outstanding art and culture projects in Mecklenburg-Vorpommern in the fields of archives, libraries, visual arts, performing arts, local history, Low German language and cultural work, cultural heritage, literature, museums and exhibitions, music, socioculture, networking and cultural youth education are also eligible for funding. In addition, there are funding opportunities within the framework of an investment program according to annually defined investment priorities as well as within the framework of the state program "Meine Heimat - Mein modernes Mecklenburg-Vorpommern" and the state program for the preservation of written and audiovisual cultural assets. Beneficiaries Cultural institutions organized under public and private law and natural persons. Type and scope, amount of the grant As a rule, non-repayable grants are awarded as project funding of up to 70 percent of the total eligible expenditure. Grants of up to EUR 50,000 are generally provided in the form of fixed-amount funding, beyond that in the form of pro rata funding. There are special regulations for individual funding areas.

Verfahrensablauf

Until further notice, the online service for applying for cultural funding is not available. Application documents for written applications and information on the procedure as well as contact persons can be found under "Forms".

Approval: Following the announcement of approval, the grant notification will be issued once all information and documents have been submitted.

Disbursement of funds: You can request the funds as soon as the grant notification becomes final and the funds are used within the next six months. The grant notification becomes final one month after delivery if you do not file a complaint. You can accelerate the date on which the decision becomes final by not lodging an appeal.

Proof of use: After completion of the project, you must provide proof that the grant received was used properly and for the intended purpose. All income and expenditure for the project must be documented. Further details can be found in the grant notification.

Reclaim: If funds disbursed were not used properly and for the intended purpose for the project, they must be repaid. You will be asked to make a statement before the funds are reclaimed.

Conclusion of the procedure: At the end of the procedure, a final decision is issued for partial and full funding, in which the amount of the grant is finally determined. In the case of fixed-amount funding, you will receive a final notification. You can destroy the documents relating to the project and the proof of use
