Teaser	You can obtain a residence permit for an EU study-related internship if you meet certain requirements.
Volltext	You can obtain a residence permit for a study-related EU internship if you have obtained a university degree in the two years prior to submitting your application or are still studying in a third country that leads to a university degree. A higher education institution is any educational institution that offers a degree that is comparable to a higher education degree that could be obtained in Germany. In this regard, the assessment recommendations of the Central Office for Foreign Education must be taken into account, see further information. If you have not yet reached the age of 18, the person with parental responsibility must agree to your planned stay for the purpose of the study-related internship. The residence permit for a study-related internship is a temporary residence permit. It is issued for the agreed duration of the internship, but for a maximum of six months. request, it may be possible to apply via the Internet.

Find out whether your foreigners authority offers electronic applications for residence permits.

- If you can only apply in person, make an appointment with the immigration office. During the appointment, your application will be accepted and your supporting documents checked (bring these with you to the appointment). Your fingerprints will be taken for the production of an electronic residence permit (eAT card).

- In the case of an electronic application, the Immigration Office will contact you after receiving your online application to arrange an appointment at the Immigration Office if necessary. During the appointment, your documents will be checked (bring them with you to the appointment) and your fingerprints will be taken for the production of the electronic residence permit (eAT card).

- If your application is approved, the Foreigners' Registration Office will arrange for the eAT card to be issued.

- After about six to eight weeks, you can collect the eAT card from the immigration office.

- The eAT card must always be collected in person.

Fees are charged for the issue of the residence permit. The time and form of payment vary depending on the authority.
