Teaser	In individual cases, you can waive the requirement for technical or vocational training to prove your expertise in accordance with the Chemical Ozone Layer Ordinance.
Volltext	In order to work on technical equipment that uses ozone-depleting substances, you must provide a certificate of competence. To obtain a certificate of competence, you normally complete a training course followed by a competence test. The examination is offered both by state-approved private providers and by public bodies such as chambers of industry and commerce or chambers of trade. In order to be admitted to the certificate of competence examination in certain categories, you must provide proof that you have completed technical or trade training. The IHK or HWK can exempt you from this requirement if you can prove that you have acquired the required technical skills elsewhere. You
