Teaser	Would you like to operate a prostitution business (prostitution establishment, prostitution agency, prostitution vehicle or prostitution event)? You need a permit for this.
Volltext	If you want to run a prostitution business, you need a permit from the competent authority. A prostitution business is a business in which services in connection with the provision of sexual services by at least one other person are offered on a commercial basis or premises are provided for this purpose. A permit is required by any person who <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • offers a prostitution establishment such as a building, individual rooms or other fixed facilities for the provision of sexual services for use (e.g. as a brothel, walk-in brothel, atelier), • provides a prostitution vehicle for the provision of sexual services (e.g. bus, camper van, caravan, boat), • organizes or conducts a prostitution event for an open circle of participants at which sexual services are offered for payment by at least one of the persons directly present (e.g. public porn shoot) or • operates a prostitution agency, i.e. arranges for at least one other person to provide sexual services outside of the operator's prostitution establishments (e.g. call boy/call girl agency, escort agency). This also applies if it is only apparent from the circumstances that the procured services also include sexual acts.

The permit may be issued for a limited period of time and be subject to ancillary provisions (conditions). The permit for the provision of a prostitution vehicle must be limited to a maximum of three years and can be extended upon application.

Anyone wishing to operate their prostitution business through a deputy also requires a deputy permit.

Please note that, in addition to the permit requirement for the prostitution business, there are other permit or notification requirements under other regulations, in particular under the provisions of restaurant, trade, building, water or immission control law.
