are also covered.

As a rule, permission to put people on display is granted for an unlimited period. However, it can also be granted for a limited period. If you wish to apply for an extension, the same conditions apply as for the initial granting of the permit.

The permit is bound to a person and a place. It can be granted for individual events, but also for regular events. The permit can be linked to conditions (also subsequently), insofar as this is necessary to protect the general public, guests or residents of the business premises or neighboring properties from danger, significant disadvantages or significant nuisances.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

- Copy of the identity card or passport with a registration certificate
- If applicable, valid residence permit (for non-EU nationals).
- Description of the business, in particular designation of the rooms and any fixtures, including a description of the intended use.
- Certificate of good conduct for submission to an authority (document type O)
- Extract from the commercial register for submission to an authority
- Certificate in tax matters from the tax office
- possibly trade or other register excerpt
- Possibly a building permit (in the case of first-time use for the exhibition of persons)
- Possibly a floor plan of all rooms intended for operation

Voraussetzungen

Requirements for the granting of permission are:

- You must have the reliability required for the business operation.
- The exhibitions must not be contrary to public morals.
- The business operation must not be contrary to the public interest with regard to its local location or the use of the premises, for example, if it would have harmful effects on the environment within the meaning of the Federal Immission Control Act
