disassembling and assembling, naming essential parts and description of the mode of operation.

In order to successfully pass the specialist examination for the trade in weapons and ammunition, you need not only theoretical but also practical knowledge. Extensive preparation is therefore recommended.

If you have applied for a permit to trade in ammunition, the handling of common ammunition and its use in the associated firearm will be tested.

If you are registered as a master gunsmith, you already have this expertise and do not have to prove it again by taking an examination at the Chamber of Industry and Commerce.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

- If applicable, notification from the authority responsible for the trading license that the examination is to take place
- Official photo ID for identification during the inspection

Voraussetzungen

- As a rule, the authority to which you have applied for the firearms dealer's license must register or pre-register you for the examination

Kosten

You can find out the fees from the Chamber of Industry and Commerce (IHK) where you are taking the examination. They can be found in the fee schedule of the responsible state authority.

Verfahrensablauf

Normally, you apply for a license to trade in weapons and are then registered for examination via the responsible licensing authority. You can or must register yourself with some chambers of industry and commerce.

- As a rule, you will receive notification from the authority responsible for the trading license that the examination is to take place
- Your registration will be confirmed by the IHK and you will receive an invitation to the examination date
- You take the exam on site at the IHK
- You will receive a certificate from the IHK confirming
