form (internships in the company, theoretical courses, mixed forms), preparatory courses for examinations and language courses. You can pursue employment not limited in time as a supplement to the implementation of a qualification measure if the intended activity during the recognition procedure is related to the professional knowledge required in the later employment. Such a connection exists, for example, if you want to have your foreign medical training recognized and already want to work as a nursing assistant during the qualification measure, or if you already want to work as a bricklayer or, for example, as a construction helper during the qualification measure to become a bricklayer. For regulated professions, a professional practice permit must have been issued or promised. The professional practice permit includes the professional law authorization to practice the profession as well as the granting of permission to use the professional title. The residence permit for the implementation of a qualification measure with employment is a temporary residence title. It is issued for the duration of the qualification measure, but for a maximum of 18 months.
