Sachverhalt

notification obligation in accordance with Section 11a (2) of the Federal Veterinary Code. The obligation to register applies when you move from another Member State to Germany for the first time to provide services. The notification must be renewed once a year if you intend to provide services in Germany temporarily and occasionally during the year in question. If prior notification is not possible due to the urgency of the activity, notification must be made immediately after the service has been provided.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

When providing services for the first time or if there is a significant change to the situation certified in the documents, you must submit the following documents in accordance with Section 11a (2) sentence 4 of the Federal Veterinary Regulations:

- Proof of nationality,
- a certificate stating that you are legally established as a veterinarian in a member state of the EU or another state party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area or a state party to which Germany and the EU have granted a corresponding legal entitlement by treaty and that you are not prohibited, even temporarily, from practicing the profession at the time the certificate is submitted, and
- your proof of professional qualification.

The certificates must not be older than twelve months at the time of submission. You may also be required to provide information on details of your insurance cover or any other type of individual or collective protection in relation to professional liability.

Translations of documents and certificates written in a foreign language must be submitted in German, unless otherwise permitted by the State Chamber of Veterinary Surgeons. The State Chamber of Veterinary Surgeons may require that the translations have been prepared by a publicly appointed or sworn interpreter or translator.

Voraussetzungen

You must be legally established to practice veterinary medicine in another EU member state or one of the states listed above.
