Teaser	Would you like to offer gastronomy with alcohol as part of a temporary event (e.g. funfair, city festival, shooting festival) or for another temporary occasion (e.g. construction canteens)? Then you need a temporary permit (permission).
Volltext	If you would like to operate a restaurant with alcohol serving as part of a temporary event (e.g. funfair, city festival, shooting festival) or for another temporary occasion (e.g. canteen on the occasion of a major construction site), you can apply for a temporary permit (permit) under simplified conditions. Permission is revoked. Permission is also required if you have a travel trade card. Conversely, you do not need a travel trade card for a specific event if you already have a permit to do so (§ 55a para. 1 no.7 GewO). If you want to regularly participate in a certain recurring event with your catering business (e.g. at an annual folk festival), there is basically an alternative to repeatedly applying for a permit. If there is no change in the spatial conditions or the mode of operation of your business, a permanent permit can be considered. However, the granting of such a permit does not say anything about the allocation of a stand at the respective event.

Particularly with regard to the spatial requirements, a less strict standard can be applied with regard to the temporary nature of the event-related hospitality activity than in the case of a permanent permit. Concerns can also be dispelled by means of conditions; Permission is only temporary for the duration and location of the event; in the case of regular participation in certain recurring events, a one-time application for a permanent permit for the events in question can alternatively be made if there are no significant changes to the premises and the mode of operation.
