Anyone wishing to transfer monkeys and semi-monkeys (primates) as well as semen, embryos and eggs to other EU Member States needs a licence to do so.

Volltext

If you

- monkeys and semi-monkeys (primates) and products derived from these animals;
- semen of cattle, pigs, horses, sheep and goats, or
- Embryos and oocytes of cattle, horses, pigs, sheep and goats to other EU Member States, your business needs a licence from the competent authority.

To obtain admission, you must meet the necessary requirements.

Poultry establishments from which poultry are moved to another Member State for purposes other than slaughter are also subject to authorisation. Hatcheries from which hatching eggs or poultry are to be moved to another Member State also require authorisation.
