Hinweise	• As a rule, personal reliability is checked by consulting the police clearance certificate in accordance with Section 30 (5) of the Federal Central Criminal Register Act and information from the Central Trade Register in accordance with Section 150 (1) of the Trade Regulation Act. The certificate is limited to the information contained therein. • If there are no findings, this will be certified. • Otherwise, the relevant entries will be certified on request. This makes the legal nature of the certificate clear. • It is not an administrative act, but an instrument of knowledge transfer and primarily serves as access to knowledge.
Rechtsbehelf	If the competent catering authority refuses to certify the findings from the background check, you can file a complaint with the competent local administrative court.
Kurztext	• Findings from the reliability check Certificate • Contact the authority that checked your reliability as part of the notification procedure for a restaurant business and ask them to certify the findings. • The findings will be certified to you in writing. • This procedure can also be handled by a "single point of contact". The "Single Point of Contact" is a special service offered by the municipalities and the state for service providers. • The responsible authority is the municipality that has been notified of the commencement of serving alcohol in the context of a restaurant business.
