Teaser	If you want to organize a so-called other game with the possibility of winning (in money or goods) on a commercial basis, you need a corresponding permit.
Volltext	Anyone wishing to organize other games with the possibility of winning on a commercial basis (e.g. games of skill) requires a permit from the competent authority. The permit must be applied for. A game of skill is deemed to exist if the person playing the game can determine the outcome of the game with a high degree of probability through skill or their own knowledge according to the game equipment and the rules of the game. In contrast, in games of chance, the decision on winning and losing is predominantly determined by chance. The permit does not generally authorize the organization of games of chance, but only refers to a specific game. It is tied to the person and the venue. Any natural or legal person can be the holder of the permit. In the case of partnerships, each managing partner requires their own permit. The permit may be issued for a limited period or subject to conditions if this is necessary for the protection of the general public, guests, residents of the premises or neighboring properties or in the interests of the protection of minors. Subsequent inclusion, amendment and addition of conditions is also permitted. There are also games with the possibility of winning
