Teaser	An absent adult whose whereabouts are unknown receives an absence caregiver for his or her property matters to be settled promptly.
Volltext	A guardianship in absentia is established by the guardianship court. The decisive factor is whether a person is of unknown residence or cannot visit a specific place in time to settle a property matter. In addition, there must be a need for care. This can be, for example, the acceptance or waiver of an inheritance, the application for a certificate of inheritance, the termination of an apartment, the sale of a property in case of over-indebtedness.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• Application You must submit the application in writing. • Justification In the explanatory statement, you must describe the property matter and the need for care. • Documents for own investigations Before you submit the application, you must have tried to determine the residence of the adult yourself, e.g. at the State Residents' Office or the Registry Office.
Voraussetzungen	Absente adult The property matter to be settled involves an adult whose whereabouts are generally unknown and not only to the applicant. Need for care The settlement of the property matter must be necessary.
