Teaser	Studying with a vocational qualification (without a school-based university entrance qualification): If you meet certain requirements, you can gain access to certain courses of study without a school-based higher education entrance qualification.
Volltext	If you want to study and do not have a school-based university entrance qualification, you can gain access to study at a higher education institution in the state on the basis of your professional qualifications and if you meet certain requirements. In Lower Saxony, there are two different ways of access: via a completed master craftsman's or technician's examination or comparable advancement qualification, or at least three years of state-recognised vocational training in a field related to the desired course of study and at least three years of full-time professional experience in this profession. You can get advice from the university of your choice on which path is right for you. This
