Teaser	As a citizen of the Union living in Germany, you can vote in the European elections if you are entered on the electoral roll.
Volltext	If you are an EU citizen living in Germany and wish to vote in the European elections, you must first be entered on the electoral roll. This either happens automatically ex officio or you have to apply for it. If you have already been entered on the electoral roll for previous European elections and have not moved abroad in the meantime, you will be entered on the electoral roll ex officio and do not need to submit an application. In all other cases, you must apply to be entered on the electoral roll.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	Application according to Annex 2A European Election Regulations
Voraussetzungen	You will be entered on the electoral roll ex officio if, on the day of the election: • are a national of a Member State of the European Union, • are at least 18 years old, • are not disqualified from voting , and • have been entered on the electoral roll in previous European elections. You will be entered on the electoral roll on request, if, on the day of the election: • are a national of a Member State of the European Union, • are at least 18 years old on the day of the election,
